With the end of the year fast approaching, ecommerce business owners need to make sure that their company has been compliant with the current tax laws. To ensure you pay the right amount of tax, and to avoid any form of penalty, you need to make sure that your processes are working. By the end of March this year, ecommerce business owners will be required to “wrap” their products with a packaging label. Ecommerce businesses must therefore do the following: Identify who is handling your products Write down the product codes and full description Write down a unique reference number You will need to apply for a tax clearance number for each organisation. Make sure you include the details of the products in your books and on your email systems. Be aware that the packaging label must be applied by the end of March – you need to ensure that all products have been wrapped by this date. If you don't meet this deadline, you could be hit with a penalty. You'll also need
